PPA LAUNCHES THE METHODOLOGY FOR ASSESSING PROCUREMENT SYSTEMS (MAPS) ASSESSMENT FOR GHANA

On November 26, 2024, the Public Procurement Authority (PPA) in collaboration with the Ministry of Finance and World Bank officially launched the Methodology for Assessing Procurement Systems (MAPS) Assessment for Ghana. The event, which took place at La Palm Royal Beach Hotel, marks the beginning of a new phase in public procurement reform.

Key figures from several leading entities involved in government procurement and governance, as well as international organizations and civil society organizations in Ghana, attended the launch.

END OF YEAR MESSAGE FROM CEO

As we approach the end of 2024, we pause to reflect on our progress, celebrate our achievements, and prepare for what lies ahead in the following year. This year has been outstanding for impressive accomplishments and teamwork, and I appreciate the dedication and hard work of everyone who took part in this.

To our Board, Management, and Staff, your hard work and dedication has contributed to the success of our organization. Together, we have overcome obstacles, pursued our objectives and goals and accomplished remarkable achievements. The main reason for our success has been and continues to be your dedication and commitment. We appreciate all your hard work, determination and cooperation during the past 12 months.

I would like to express my gratitude to public entities for their ongoing collaboration and cooperation with the Authority. I hope that the upcoming year brings more opportunities for collaboration and growth. I would also like to appreciate the support of Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), your collaboration and cooperation has been crucial in helping us achieve our mission and vision. We are excited to keep working together to make a greater impact.. And to the media, your dedication and professionalism this year has proven to highlight the many accomplishments of the authority. We look forward to continuing this collaborative journey with you in the upcoming year. To everyone, I hope 2025 brings us all continued success, new opportunities and growth. Have an amazing holiday season filled with joy, peace and relaxation with your loved ones and family.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

The speakers at the event included Frank Mante – CEO of PPA, Kwame Prempeh – Deputy CEO of PPA, John Wuleji – Ministry of Finance (World Bank Desk), Lina Tutuanji – Senior Procurement Specialist (World Bank) and HUB Coordinator for Ghana, Sierra Leone and Liberia, Mr Raymond Muhula – Lead Ghana Specialist (World Bank), and Carl Lokko – Procurement Specialist PFM4SD

In his welcome and keynote remarks, Mr. Frank Mante emphasized the importance of implementing best practices in procurement to accomplish national development objectives and guarantee the accountable use of public funds. According to other speakers at the event, the new methodology aligns with international standards. It will be a key tool for governments to improve public procurement systems, especially in developing nations.

Representatives from the Food and Drugs Authority (FDA), Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC), Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), European Union (EU), University of Ghana, Methodist University, Judicial Service, Internal Audit Agency (IAA), Ghana Institute of Procurement and Supply (GIPS), and African Development Bank (ADB) were also present at the event.

This launch is a significant step towards realizing more transparent, efficient, and accountable procurement systems that can better serve the public interest and contribute to sustainable economic development. With the support of diverse stakeholders, the Methodology for Assessing Procurement Systems (MAPS) Assessment for Ghana is poised to impact public procurement practices worldwide.
